NINETY-FOUR YEARS OLD

Mrs. Jane Bell Quietly Celebrating Her Birthday Today—Nearing the Century Mark.

Today Mrs. Jane Bell, widow of Mr. Kemp Bell, is celebrating her ninety-fourth birthday at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Mollie Mitchell, of West Second street.

Mrs. Bell was born April 17th, 1820, in Lewis County, and at the age of 19 she came to Maysville and has ever since made her home in this city.

The children living are Mrs. Mollie Mitchell of this city and Mr. William Bell of Huntington, W. Va. Besides being called mother she feels very proud of being called grandmother and great-grandmother by a number of children.

Mrs. Bell's mind is very good, although she has lost her eyesight during the last two years. She is sociable and pleasant and well preserved considering her age.

Her daughter, Mrs. Mitchell, does all in her power to make life pleasant and agreeable for her, and makes it her special duty to look after her welfare and leaves no wish of hers unsatisfied. May she live long and happy and remain in good health to celebrate her hundredth birthday anniversary is the wish of her many relatives and friends.

"THE POOR LITTLE RICH GIRL"

Subject of Eloquent Discourse at the Central Presbyterian Church Last Night.

A large and attentive audience was present last night to hear Rev. R. L. Benn, the pastor of the church, discuss the modern problem play, "The Poor Little Rich Girl."

In his gift for keen analysis and logical solution of social and ethical problems Rev. Benn gave his hearers satisfied that prevalent wrongs would be righted were his solutions adopted.

After a vivid recital of the story, replete both with humor and pathos, depicting unnatural conditions as they exist today he elaborated its truths, first in the "social lie" as representing the craze for social recognition, requiring some one as fit to do to get into the "harness" and "keep his nose to the grindstone" in order to meet the demands and furnish the necessary coin.

He showed further, drawing from the illustrations of the play, how society abhors its devotees to the exclusion of natural ties and thus wrecks life of happiness by robbing it of its sweetness. The term, "they say," so common in current gossip, was representative as in the play, "they say," are elusive, evasive, uncertain presence whom nobody recognizes when met.

Then the paths of multitudes of children, not in Africa or China, but in America, who have father and mother, yet are orphaned in their bereavement of parental love and care. The home, he considers the greatest problem of the present day.

The illustration used in closing went to the hearts of his audience and made them believe the home instinct to be transcendent in man.

Preliminary to the lecture, Miss Martha Green Sharp pleased the audience with a solo and Miss Rita Ross and Ruth Willett with a duet.

Anyone who wants to kiss Richmond P. Hobson is now informed that he is in need of consolation. Walk right up ladies, he is just as used to it as you can possibly be.—Frankfort State Journal.

In 1912, 23,000 bushels of Argentine corn were imported into this country and during the first three months of the new Free-Trade Tariff law 4,102,000 bushels were brought in. It is rather unreasonable to contend this does not weaken our market for domestic corn. — Eagle Grove (La.) Eagle.

SMOKING ON STREET CARS.

Sooner or later, every city large enough to need street cars has to settle this question: Should or should not smoking be permitted on such cars? In all cars of the closed type—the most prevalent kind—when smoking is permitted it is usually limited to the front or rear platform. As passengers need to use both the rear and front platforms in boarding or leaving cars, the condition of these parts of the car is a matter that directly concerns the public health.

While many cities have anti-spitting ordinances, the laws, are, in the majority of instances, more honored in the breach than in the observance. As a result the street car platforms where smoking is permitted become both an offense to the eye and a menace to the health. Where smoking is allowed on the front platform, and particularly in that type of car that has the front platform enclosed, the motorman works from morning to night in a tobacco smoke impregnated atmosphere, while the passengers who leave the car by the front platform, have to pass through the exhalation-decorated "fumehamber."

When the question, shall smoking be abolished on the street cars? comes up for settlement with any city, there can only be one answer in the opinion of the Journal of the American Medical Association. From the point of view of hygiene and common cleanliness, to say nothing of the comfort of the majority, smoking on street cars is an indefensible nuisance.—Louisville Herald.

ENTER THE ENGINEER.

CAPTAIN-OF-INDUSTRY.

The engineer should be a manager, and should give orders to others who can do the work under his direction as well as he himself could do it with the situation reversed. It should not be considered unprofessional for an engineer to be a capitalist, and, when he takes his proper place as promoter and organizer and shares in the profits of engineering enterprises, he will no longer be taunted with the saying that "an engineer is only good to spend other people's money;" is the opinion of a public works division engineer in the current Engineering News. It is by acquiring individual strength that the engineer can give strength to the profession. It is well known that engineers of admitted proficiency often have to work under the direction of men who are unfitted by education and experience to direct engineering work.

In every field of activity the world is coming more and more to depend and rely upon engineers. But to meet these demands, engineers themselves must grow and become broader men. The successful engineer of today and of tomorrow cannot be like the engineer of yesterday, who too often would "retire into the technical recesses of his professional work and content himself with being the servant of other men." The engineer of today should be a broad-gauge man, aggressive, alert, in touch with public questions outside his own narrow field, and a leader—not a follower—of men. It is upon the development of these qualities in engineers themselves that the whole future success of the profession depends.—Engineering News.

NOT A REPUBLICAN LIE.

As early as January 10, this year, the Free-Trade New York Times said that "in the Middle States there were 1,000,000 idle men, with an average loss of $50,000,000 a month in wages. If the statement is not true do not say it is a 'Republican lie.' We quote from a Democratic Free-Trade newspaper.—Marion (La.) Register.

RESULTS OF "REFORM."

It is announced that, as a result of the work of "reform" in driving the United States Express Co. out of business, some 15,000 employees will be thrown out of work. As the result of the insistence of the National Government upon the increases in railway employees' wages, the train service in New England has been reduced seriously, and many employees of railroads, in New England, and indeed all over the country, are out of work, today. As the result of tariff "reform" the army of the unemployed in our large cities is greater than it has been for many years. It is plain that these latest phases of Democratic reform have proved to be the unmitigated blessings which the voters, some 18 months ago, imagined that they would be. But then, in politics, it is always easier to promise the coming of the millennium than to bring the promise to fulfillment.—Boston Advertiser.

ON TO LOUISVILLE.

Supt. J. G. Hucker, of the Boyd County schools, and Supt. J. W. Bradner, of the Ashland schools, inform us that they believe a large crowd from Boyd County will attend the Kentucky Educational Association at Louisville, April 29th to May 2nd. The managers of this association are trying to make this the biggest attendance in the history of the organization. They expect to have an attendance of from six thousand to ten thousand. An effort is being made to get two hundred teachers, school directors and parents to go from Boyd County. The teachers all get paid for their trip, at the same rate they would get if they were teaching, and since the railroad fare is only $6.50 for the round trip, it seems to us that it is an opportunity no wide-awake teacher can ignore. Better plan to attend this association meeting, the last of this month, and make a better teacher of yourself and at the same time learn something that will do you good in other ways.—Ashland Independent.

DIRECT LEGISLATION.

In direct legislation in such a state as California the great majority of electors are compelled to act almost in entire ignorance of the probable effect of the laws which they enact. Many cannot read the English language. Very few, indeed, have opportunity to hear or read the facts and reasoning on both sides. Without knowledge, often under the bias of emotional or demagogic political oratory, the voters are compelled to legislate on dozens of most intricate subjects at one time—and they vote as it may happen.

That the people make many mistakes in such legislation is proved by the fact that they are continually making changes. And the more they go into detail in their legislation the greater the number of the mistakes they make.

Unquestionably that is the kind of government we now live under in this State. We are not at this time discussing whether it is a good government or bad government. The essential thing is that we have abandoned not only representative government but constitutional government. Calling a law a "constitutional amendment" does not make it so except in name.—San Francisco Chronicle.

HUSBAND IS FINED

For Refusal to Allow Operation on His Wife.

Lexington, Ky., April 15.—A jury yesterday afternoon found John Bradley guilty under the indictment for involuntary manslaughter in refusing to allow surgeons to operate on his wife, as a result of which both his wife and an unborn child died. It fixed his punishment at a fine of $25 and costs and thirty days in jail.

On the days that Mrs. Bradley was taken ill five doctors were at her bedside and informed Bradley, according to the evidence, that an operation was necessary to save his wife and child, to which he would not consent, and both Mrs. Bradley and her child died.

FRUIT TREES

Will Be Planted Along Beautiful National Road.

Columbus, Ohio.—Johnny Appleseed's successor is the State of Ohio.

Fruit trees of all kinds will be planted along the new National road from the Pennsylvania line to the Indiana line, under the direction of the State Highway Department, as fast as that road is improved, State Highway Commissioner James R. Marker announced.

This is one feature in a general scheme of beautification of this road. Mr. Marker said that the kind of trees to be planted at different places depends on the nature of the country through which the road passes. Where it runs straight for many miles tall shade trees probably will be used to make a vista. Where the road is winding fruit trees will be planted profusely.

BLUFFING HUERTA

Uncle Sam Permits Wholesale Murder in Mexico But Demands Apology For Lack of Naval Courtesy.

Washington, April 14.—President Wilson today ordered practically the entire Atlantic fleet to Mexican waters to force a public salute to the stars and stripes from the Huerta government as an apology for the arrest of American marines at Tampico last Thursday.

No ultimatum has been issued, that is, no specific time has been set within which the Huerta government must comply, but the Naval Department has been ordered as concrete evidence of the fixed determination of the United States to back up Rear Admiral Mayo's demand for a salute. Up to tonight General Huerta had not made satisfactory responses to that demand.

"Future developments depend upon Huerta himself," was the way a high administration official close to the President summarized the situation.

WEEKLY SPORT LETTER.

(By C. H. Zuber.)

Cincinnati, April 15, 1914. With a majority of the teams in the two major leagues started on their way in the 1914 fight for the pennant, baseball enthusiasts all over the land will now have their box seats and their percentage table regularly on their daily news. The opening games of yesterday carry no significance with them, further than to emphasize the fact that baseball promises to be more popular than ever this year. Here in Cincinnati the followers of the game have been worked to an extraordinary pitch of enthusiasm over the methods that have been pursued in assembling and developing that talent that is to comprise the Reds this year. No claims are made for the team, so far as position is concerned; but those who have seen the boys perform so far unobscuredly pronounce the brand of baseball offered to be of higher class than any shown by a local aggregation in recent years.

The only question about the team is its mechanical strength; intellectually and in the matter of leadership the Reds of 1914 measure up with any aggregation that has represented Cincinnati on the diamond in the past twenty years. No team in the National League offers more opportunities for study than the Reds of this season. The many changes that have been made in the lineup and much interest in the general performance of the team this year. The engagement of Herzog as manager and shortstop; the advent of Bert Nichol at third; Herb Moran in right field; Gonzales and Von Kohnitz behind the bat; the string of new pitchers, including Earl Yonkey and Jack Rowan; and the several new infielders and outfielders who are trying for utility jobs, add much to the zest which usually accompanies the study of the early work of a team. These youngsters will be used as much as possible in the early games of the season so that Manager Herzog may get a correct line on them and not turn any admit, who later may develop into stars. So the patrons of the early games will have the opportunity of seeing many youngsters in action—some of whom may come up as stars from other leagues, and who have demonstrated their right to thorough try-outs before their status finally is fixed.

The Reds' first two series of games will be with teams that the wise men have picked as possible pennant winners. Just at present Manager Herzog and his crew are outstaying the Chicago Cubs, who present a somewhat different aspect than when they played here last fall. Following Hank O'Day's aggregation the Pirates, led by Fred Clarke, will come to town, they being the first Sunday attraction of the season, scheduled for a Sabbath encounter on April 19, and again on May 3, the St. Louis team, also with a changed line-up, facing the interesting Sunday, April 26. The Pirates, since last seen here, have relieved St. Louis of Ed Connelly, Mike Mowrey and Pitcher Bob Harmon, and have given the Cards to exchange Hans Miller, Nolan, Chief Wilson and a pair of pitchers. The Pirates also have developed an outfielder by the name of Kelly and several battery-men, so that they may cut more fire than expected.

But cattle are beginning to move and in Montgomery some have been sold at 75 and 76c.

LESS FOR SCHOOLS

Than for Good Roads—State Collects Big Sum Under Half Mill Levy to Improve Highways.

Ohio as a State is now collecting more taxes for the building of good roads than for educating its youth in the public schools.

The amount paid into the State treasury by the counties in the recent semi-annual settlement was, round improved, $1,681,500.85; common schools, $1,147,429.38. The total paid in for all purposes was $2,828,930.23. The remainder is for university and sinking fund.

Because of the good roads levy of half a mill, only nine counties had balances due from the State in the settlement.

The objection to the cornet is that one must practice to learn to play it.

WOMAN SWALLOWED HUNDREDS OF HAIRPINS.

New York.—Having swallowed hundreds of hairpins within the last two years, Mrs. Alice Biehoff died Sunday night in Bellevue Hospital. Today an autopsy is in progress so doctors may learn how it was possible for her to live so long with hairpins in her stomach. The woman who was forty-three years old, was committed to the Matteawan Asylum for the Criminal Insane early in 1912. At once she began to swallow every hairpin she could get. Five operations have been necessary in the two years to relieve her of her strange food, the last one proving fatal. She died of shock.

BRUTALLY ASSAULTED

Pearl Norris 16-Year-Old Bath County Girl Attacked By Negro and White Man and Left Unconscious.

Sharpsburg, April 14.—Pearl Norris, the 16-year-old daughter of Steven Norris, a farmer of the county, while walking to town tonight from the farm of J. C. Spritt, with whose family she is staying, to meet her sister, was brutally assaulted by an unknown negro and a white man, her clothes being partly torn from her body, and she robbed of her purse containing small change.

The girl was left unconscious by the two men, but after a time gained her senses, and called for help. As the assault had taken place but a few hundred feet from the city limits, aid was quickly procured, many of the people living in the immediate vicinity coming to her assistance.

It is not known just how long the girl remained unconscious, but when assistance arrived no trace of the ruffians could be found. V. G. Mullikin, of Lexington, was instantly called, and it is expected that, with his bloodhounds, Kings and Rube, the two men who performed the deed will be run down, as all precautions were taken to keep the scent clear.

Miss Norris, who at present is residing on the farm of J. C. Spritt, expecting a visit from her young sister, was coming to the city limits to meet her and accompany her back to the farm, when the assault was made. Public feeling against the ruffians has been aroused to high pitch.

Miss Norris, when attacked, was so badly frightened that she could not describe the men, except that one was a negro and the other a white man. The deed was done about 6 o'clock this evening.

Women Everywhere

Praise Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Women from the Atlantic to the Pacific, from all sections of this great country, no city so large, no village so small but that some woman has written words of thanks for health restored by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. No woman who is suffering from the ills peculiar to her sex should rest until she has given this famous remedy a trial. Is it not reasonable to believe that what it did for these women it will do for any sick woman?

Wonderful Case of Mrs. Stephenson, on the Pacific Coast.

INDEPENDENCE, OREGON.—"I was sick with what four doctors called Nervous Prostration, was treated by them for several years, would be better for a while then back in the old way again. I had palpitation of the heart very bad, fainting spells, and was so nervous that a spoon dropping to the floor would nearly kill me, could not lift the lightest weight without making me sick; in fact was about as sick and miserable as a person could be. I saw your medicine advertised and thought I would try them, and am so thankful I did for they helped me at once. I took about a dozen bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and also used the Sanative Wash. Since then I have used them whenever I felt sick. Your remedies are the only doctor I employ. You are at liberty to publish this letter."—Mrs. W. STEPHENSON, Independence, Oregon.

A Grateful Atlantic Coast Woman.

HOPKINS, ME.—"I feel it a duty I owe to all suffering women to tell what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for me. One year ago I found myself a terrible sufferer. I had pains in both sides and such a soreness I could scarcely straighten up at times. My back ached, I had no appetite and was so nervous I could not sleep, then I would be so tired mornings that I could scarcely get around. It seemed almost impossible to move or do a bit of work and I thought I never would find any better until I submitted to an operation. I commenced taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and soon felt like a new woman. I had no pains, slept well, had good appetite and was fat and could do almost all my own work for a family of four. I shall always feel that I owe my good health to your medicine."—Mrs. HAYWARD SOWERS, Hodgdon, Maine.

For 30 years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills. No one sick with woman's ailments does justice to herself if she does not try this famous medicine made from roots and herbs, it has restored so many suffering women to health. Write to LYDIA E. PINKHAM MEDICINE CO., (CONFIDENTIAL) LYNN, MASS., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

NOVEL EXHIBITS

Of Surgeons' Art Feature Big Congress in New York.

New York.—Discussion of papers on gastric and duodenal ulcer occupied the attention of the foreign and American surgeons attending the fourth congress of the International Surgical Association.

Among the many instruments exhibited at the congress was a new stitching machine, attached to a clamp. This is used in stitching incisions made in the tissues of the stomach and intestine. Another exhibit which is of most interest to the foreign visitors was a piece of mechanism in the shape of an artificial hand and arm. The artificial hand opens and closes with will; they have a viselike grip, and when one is taught to use the artificial member he can write easily, pick up small objects, such as coins, from the floor; manipulate knife and fork and execute dozens of other necessary tasks but with trifling inconvenience.

FARM AND STOCK NOTES.

Farmers and fruit growers in this section say the frozes last week did not seriously hurt the fruit crop and young clover. The fruit trees as a rule were not out in bloom. What was in bloom was killed. The young clover that was up withstood the freeze, but that which was likely killed, as the ground was frozen hard.

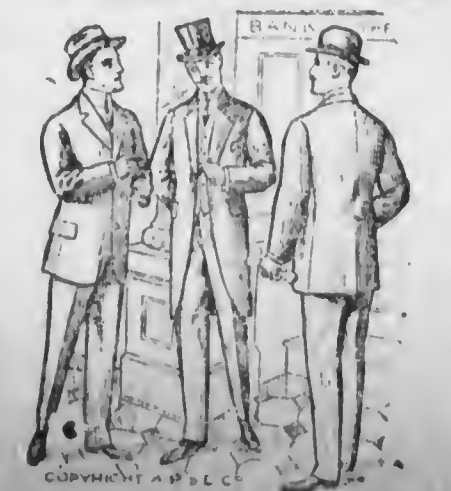

Shake half a bushel of unsked lime with boiling water, keeping it covered during the process. Strain it and add a peck of salt, dissolved in warm water; three pounds of ground rice put in boiling water and boiled to a thin paste; half a pound Spanish whiting and a pound of clear glue, dissolved in warm water. Mix these well together and let the mixture stand for several days. Keep the wash thus prepared in a kettle or portable furnace, and when used put it on as hot as possible with painters' or whitewash brushes.

BLOCKADING MEXICO

Uncle Sam at Last Aroused and Entire Naval Fleet Corralles Huerta's Domain.

Norfolk, Va., April 15.—Bound to Mexico to force Huerta to submit the flag, nine warships steamed out of Hampton Roads today. Tought they are sixty four miles below Papo Henry in a dense fog. The ships are the Albatross, the New Hampshire, the Vermont, the New Jersey, the dispatch boat Yankee, the collier Lehigh, and the naval trigs Patuxent, Sumner and Patagon. Every one of them carries a full supply of ammunition and provisions to last three months.

Admiral Bagley declined to discuss the Mexican situation. He said the Atlantic fleet was in good condition and ready to carry out any service demanded of them.

Huerta is Formally Warned. Washington, April 15.—With a majority of the ships of the American Navy under orders today to proceed at once to the Atlantic and Pacific coasts of Mexico, the United States government gave Huerta formal warning that unless a salute was fired to the Stars and Stripes within a reasonable time to the United States government would regard the rights and dignity of the United States, serious eventualities would result.

They have work in hand that will keep them busy during the entire summer season. This is good news for its large force of men.

The O. R. & C. last Tuesday brought into Levensville the heaviest train load of lumber in its history. Altogether, nine cars of Douglas fir from Oregon and three cars of new machinery have been hauled into Levensville.

HORSE-TRADERS BARRED FROM JOCKEYING ON WINCHESTER STREETS.

Winchester, Ky.—Chief of Police Wenden McCard, of Winchester, has issued a warning that no "horse jockeying" will be allowed on the streets here on court days. The recently organized Humane Society is doing active work, and Chief McCard and his force will lend every assistance possible. In many cases spurs and whips are used to give the horses action, while the riders are off times intoxicated. The "jockeys" deal principally in "plugs" and interfere with traffic by racing up and down the streets.

Mr. McCard will have his men stationed next court day to see that his order is not violated.

Maysville will be forced to take similar action regarding County Court day horse trading.

The percentage of illiteracy in Campbell County is only a small fraction over 2 per cent. Fayette County, heart of the Blue Grass region, is shown to have more than 12 per cent.

WOMAN'S SUFFRAGE LEAGUE

To Meet Saturday at Library To Discuss Constitutional Amendment and Kentucky Legislation.

The Mason County Woman Suffrage League will meet at the Public Library Saturday April 18, at 1 o'clock a. m. A full attendance is desired.

The Susan B. Anthony Amendment, otherwise known as the Bristow Amendment, is again before the Federal Congress and also a new amendment introduced by Senator Chafetz. Come talk them over and decide whether the Mason County League wishes to go on record as endorsing either of them.

The General Assembly of Kentucky should submit a Woman Suffrage Amendment in 1916 to be voted on by the electorate in November, 1917. Every believer in the right of citizenship for women should do all in his or her power to push the campaign of education and bring the question to successful issue at the earliest possible date. It will take the united and hearty effort of all friends of the cause to combat prejudice, ignorance and indifference. Let us get through with the period of agitation as speedily as possible and get down to constructive work.

A most attractive speaker has been invited to speak to the meeting Saturday. Come hear her. It is earnestly hoped that all committees appointed at the last meeting will be ready to report. ALICE LLOYD, President.

HOW HUERTA SLAPPED UNCLE SAM'S FACE.

Washington, April 15.—The arrest of an orderly who went ashore at Tampico to obtain mail for the American fleet, the interception of dispatches to General O'Shaughnessy, and censorship over official dispatches and repeated offenses against the rights and dignity of the United States were given today as some of the causes of the dispatch of the Atlantic fleet to Mexico, in an official statement representing the administration's views.

These are in addition to the Tampico incident in which Assistant Paymaster Charles Cope and a boatload of marines were arrested last Thursday when they went ashore to get supplies. They were afterward discharged, but Admiral Mayo, in accordance with regulations at all marines, demanded reparation in the form of a salute of 21 guns to the American fleet. Huerta apologized, but refused to order the salute and action by the President followed.

INDIANS ATTACKED FORTS 137 YEARS AGO.

(Wednesday's Lexington Leader.) Students of history note that today is the anniversary of the invasion of Kentucky by the most bitter and violent Indian war parties in the history of the State. The little stockades at Boone's Landing, Hannibalburg and Logan's Fort, in Lincoln County, had just been completed and these three were simultaneously attacked by Indian bands from the north on April 15, 1777.

Hunters and surveyors were driven from the wilderness, crops were destroyed and stock driven off, and the whole countryside with the hard toil of its scanty improvement represented was laid waste. The attacks upon the forts were unsuccessful, and while some lives were lost, the defense of the settlers was so vigorous that the invasion was for the time being swept back.

It was generally supposed that the Indian attacks upon the frontier were incited by the British in the northern posts, and the invasion was one of the causes of the daring march of George Rogers Clark with his Virginia and Kentucky riflemen to surprise and capture of Vincennes and Kaskaskia.

ELECTRIC SIGNS!

The distinguishing air of quality which a first-class Electric Sign gives to a store is the element which gives a sign its greatest value as an advertising medium and investment. The impression it makes is good. It blazes forth to the public that there is business enterprise, merchandise and methods up-to-date. It affects the entire atmosphere of the business district. The stranger says, "It is a live town," and publishes it abroad. It is the Sign of the Times.
